Ms. Mary Rogness-Stickney
5675 S.W. 42nd Road
Cortland, Nebraska 68331

Dear Ms. Rogness-Stickney,

My attention was drawn to your work in genealogy on the Baldwin family. I began my genealogical endeavors about five years ago. As a rank amateur in that field, I began to follow up on the work done by my father, great grandfather, and great, great grandfather. I have spent a good deal of time on the Lawrence side of my ancestry and I am now working on the Baldwin side.

My great, great grandmother was Martha Baldwin, daughter of James Baldwin who was the son of Josiah Baldwin. I can provide you with some information which you may choose to use or not when you are upgrading your records.

First, my father's research and great grandfather's research have recorded the information on Josiah Baldwin as follows:

Birth: 04 Mar 1757 (This date is listed as 1740 in the genealogies I have found on the internet)

Death: 02 Jun 1840 (This makes sense when examining the life span of Josiah, some 83 years)

Marriage: Martha ——— (Martha's surname is not identified in my records)

Birth: 25 Mar 1762

Death: 30 Aug 1835

Josiah and Martha had 12 children. They are listed below with birth and death dates.

1. Eunice Baldwin, b. 24 Aug 1783, d. 02 Nov 1801

2. Thomas Baldwin, b. 27 Oct 1785, d.

3. James Baldwin, b. 26 Oct 1787, d. 11 Aug 1860

4. Anna Baldwin, b. 13 Sep 1789, d.

5. Elizabeth Baldwin, b. 23 Dec 1791 d.

6. David Baldwin, b. 22 Sep 1793 d.

7. Huldah Baldwin, b. 25 Oct 1795 d. 07 Aug 1847

8. Jemima Baldwin, b. 07 Nov 1797 d. 20 Dec 1875

9. Phoebe Baldwin, b. 28 May 1800 d.

10. Rodah Baldwin, b. 11 Dec 1802 d.
11. Madison Baldwin, b. 13 Apr 1804 d. 07 May 1838
12. Margret (Adopted) no information other than that.

My third great grandfather was James, third child of Josiah. James married Hannah ... Whose surname is not recorded. Hannah died in November of 1863. Hannah and James were married on 01 Jan 1814. Their children were as follows:

1. Valeria A. Baldwin, b. 11 Jul 1816 d. 01 Oct 1891
m. Horatio Fuller
Had four children: Henry, Eunice, Harriett, and Charles.
2. Martha Melvina Baldwin, b. 14 May 1818 d. 11 Apr 1907
m. Porter Jewett Lawrence
Had one child: Camilla Carferilla Lawrence
3. Alvin Baldwin b. 01 Feb 1820 d.
m.
Had four Children: Mary, Alpheus, Clara, and Charles
4. Eunice M. Baldwin, b. Nov. 1822, d. Aft 1880
m. ---- Waite (First name not yet located)
Had four children: Oscar, Susan, Jane, and Eunice
(My father's record lists a possible 5th child, unnamed)
5. Harrison Baldwin b. 17 Feb 1824, d. 19 July 1904
m. Martha Mary Langworthy 09 Oct 1856, Oxford, Michigan
Had 3 children: Arthur, Judson, and Ina May 6. Sarah Baldwin b. Abt 1831, d. 03 Jan 1903
m1. --- Deski
m2. LeRoy Glann
Ha 1 child by m1 and 2 children by m2: Flora, Lorin, Etta.
7. Julia M. Baldwin b. 13 Feb 1828 d. 15 Oct 1911
m. ----- Burwell
Had 2 children: Emma and Marsena

Martha's only child, Camilla, married her first cousin, John Alexander Jackson both of whom kept diaries containing important items in their lives. Detailed entries of trips from their home in Winnebago, Illinois to Michigan describe visits to many of the Baldwin's, most notable are Harrison and Sarah.

I am not sure if any of this is new to you but I thought I would try to contact several people who seem to have prepared detailed genealogies. I think it's as interesting to follow the surname beyond the direct line, thus perhaps locating distant relatives.

The diaries of Camilla Lawrence, John Jackson, and Porter Lawrence came to me through the following route:

When John Jackson passed away, Camilla moved to Rockford, Illinois and lived with her only daughter, Elva. They were stored in Elva's house until she passed on. My father was the only living relative of Elva and was responsible for closing out Elva's estate. He found the diaries in rather pristine condition and brought them home for studying. When my father passed on, as his eldest living son, I took possession of the diaries and many photographic albums my parents had saved over the years in addition to those saved from Elva's belongings.

My descent is as follows:

Porter Lawrence and Martha Baldwin

John Alexander Jackson and Camilla Lawrence

Orin Porter Jackson and Marie DeBuhr

Olin DeBuhr Jackson and Edna Anna Hanson

Robert Loring Jackson and m1 Helen Marian Baker
Elizabeth Denise Koteski

ADDENDUM, AUGUST 08, 2007

I have, as of this date, been in contact with a Mr. W.R. Cushing of San Diego, California. He has accepted responsibility for maintaining the genealogy of the Cushing surname. I noted that he has, in that genealogy, included the name of Hannah Cushing, born in Vermont in 1794 and died on 06 November, 1860. Mr. Cushing has listed a James Baldwin as Hannah's husband, having been married in her home town of Bridport, Addison, Vermont on 01 January, 1814. Other than that, he had little or no information on the descendants of James and Hannah.

Adding support to the conclusion that this was the Hannah referred to in my father's research on the Baldwin line, was the fact that Hannah passed on 06 November 1860, and was buried in the old burying ground in Oakland, Michigan. At this point the evidence is strong enough to support the claim that Hannah Cushing was the wife of James Baldwin.

I provided Mr. Cushing with the Baldwin information and he provided me with the Cushing genealogy which is available on the internet. Hannah's parents were Noah Matthew Cushing and Abigail Lockling. Noah was born in Rehoboth, Bristol, Massachusetts 09 Jun 1752 and Abigail born 01 May 1757 in Templeton, Windham, Vermont. Hannah's death in Oxford, Oakland, Michigan and the rather frequent visits of her daughter Martha and granddaughter Camilla Lawrence Jackson, to her Michigan relatives ties the relationship beautifully. The earliest preserved diaries of Porter Jewett Lawrence, Martha's husband date from 1862, and those of her son-in-law John Alexander Jackson continued notations until his death in 1910. A documented day-by-day account of a 3 month journey to Michigan from Winnebago, Illinois is included in his 1879-80 diary.

Hannah's grandfather, Matthew Cushing and grandmother, Abigail Titus, had five other children in addition to Noah. Her great grandfather was Matthew Cushing, born in 1698.

While Mr. Cushing had noted that Josiah Baldwin's birth year was about 1740, (the date quoted by many genealogists), my date of 1757 still appears to me to be much more accurate; still allowing time for him to be an integral part of the American Revolution. Most agree that Josiah's service as an "articifer" during the war was extremely important to that effort.

Robert

Thank you for contacting me. I am glad my information was of some use to you. I am also pleased with the information you included about the Baldwin children. I found that extremely useful and have added it to my database.

I originally had Martha Baldwin married to Laurence Porter. But your information and the 1880 census has shown me that it actually was indeed Porter Jewett Lawrence. FamilySearch™ Ancestral File v4.19 gives his birthdate as 5 Nov 1821 in Cortland Co NY s/o John Lawrence and Susan Stanton. That file also details all of their children as well. No doubt you have already discovered that information.

I retired to Malibu in sunny southern California in 1988 at the ripe old age of 39.

I had promised my grandmother that I would update her copy of the 1905 Genealogy of the Cushing Family. What you see online is a result of that research that has been ongoing since 2002.

Warren Cushing

Mr. Warren Cushing, Sir:

In examining your material which I was able to obtain from Ancestry.com, I was pleased to find information which relates directly to my 4th Great Grandfather and Grandmother, Josiah Baldwin and Hannah Cushing. I believe, if you are at all interested, I can furnish you with additional facts which are not contained in what I could find on your information.

I am a retired professor from the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, and have moved to the warm spaces of the Las Vegas, Nevada region. Over the past five years I have spent considerable time in gathering information on both my ancestry and their descendants. My original investigation dealt with the "Lawrence" surname back to another of my 4th great grandfathers, John Lawrence, Senior, of Bennington, Vermont. Currently I am trying to breach a wall which blocks the identity of my 5th great grandfather Lawrence. I have utilized the new techniques of DNA analysis to help in this quest. So far I have discovered only the facts that show who IS NOT that Lawrence. Research continues...

My father did a great deal of research back in the 1930's and I have used his materials as a starting point. His work was completed by the use of family bibles, personal interviews with living family members, writings of his father and grandfather in daily diaries (those of Porter J. Lawrence and John A. Jackson) and visitations to various sites. I have also utilized the census reports to verify or reject information which my father accumulated.

Discovering that the Hannah ... which my father listed as James's wife was in reality Hannah Cushing (as per your information) is a real find for me. Thank you so much. Let me close this note with some information on the children of James and Hannah which I did not find in your material, although it may be found there.

The location is different. And James was born 1787 in NJ, but maybe his father Josiah was previously married to someone else before Martha. Note how young Martha is compared to Josiah. That usually is a dead give-away that this may be second marriage. Maybe James had a mother named other than Martha. What do you think?

Hi,

Good to hear from you. I've attached my Baldwin lineage. This doesn't show a common Baldwin ancestor with yours although I think there might be one elsewhere.

I couldn't find your family genealogy on ancestry.com at least not one with the name Stoneyjax75. Do you have one online? I did find some others that have the Martha Baldwin. They show her the daughter of James Baldwin and Hannah Cushing, Married in Bridport, VT. That got my attention as I'm quite interested in keeping track of the many Baldwins in Bridport, VT.

I have this James as being the son of Josiah but have a 1740 birthdate for Josiah. I also have Josiah being the son of another Josiah born in 1700 and died in 1800 in Bridport, VT.

If I've got this right, then the elder Josiah would be a common ancestor for both of us through another marriage down the line.

Regards,

Dave Baldwin

Bob,

Thanks for all the good information. I'll go with your 1757 birthdate since you have a good source. I got my date just from copying one of those other pesky Internet sites. I have the same problem with my ancestor, Levi Baldwin. Almost all sites list the wrong children for him (in my opinion, at least).

I also see that the 1800 census gives Josiah an age which is in line with your 1757 date. This date also means there's a rather large difference in ages between Josiah and Thomas (21 yrs). Maybe they aren't brothers and maybe there is another Father in between. Actually it's possible that Thomas could be Josiah's Father. Thomas and Anna Allen were married July 15, 1756. That figures out to a less than an 8 months pregnancy, though.

Have you gone through the Deed records in Bridport? If not, I have copies of several that would be of interest to you. The earliest has Josiah Baldwin of Hannover, Morris Cty, NJ purchasing 50 acres for 20 pounds on Oct 6, 1788. There's also a couple which involve both Josiah and Thomas Baldwin the second. I presume that's the Thomas who is a son of Josiah. If you haven't seen these, I will be happy to send a copy.

Well, I'm 83 so we're in the same age group. I just moved into a retirement community here in St Petersburg, FL. My career was first in electronics and later in computer programming which I still do a little of.

Hope to hear from you soon,

Dave

Thanks for your quick response to my note, Dave. I will send you more information soon. I have been "fighting" the 1740 date of Josiah's birth. I believe it started with someone estimating abt 1740 and publishing that date. No one has provided specific information which would contradict my father's research on Josiah's birth. This he got from his Great grandmother, Martha Baldwin, daughter of James and granddaughter of Josiah. The date and information he has written is:

Josiah Baldwin, born 04 Mar 1757

died 02 Jun 1840

m. Martha ----- b. 25 May 1762

d. 30 Aug 1835

The evidence seems to support a birth place as Essex County, New Jersey although my father did not list the place of birth for him. I have not yet located the surname of Martha, his wife. One other reason to reject the 1740 date recorded by most, is that he would have been 100 years old at death and his first child at the age of 43, rather strange at that time. Also, there would be some printed information on a 100 year old man and a veteran, at that.

Josiah died in Mentz, Cayuga County, New York, but not before the 1840 census there. He was also in Mentz for the 1820 census. I have contacted the Mentz and Cayuga County Historical society for help in clarifying this question. I will keep you informed. The children of Josiah and Martha are as follows:

	1. Eunice,	b. 24 Aug 1783	d. 02 Nov 1801
	2. Thomas	b. 27 Oct 1783	d. 1863 in Ohio
	3. James	b. 26 Oct 1787	d. 11 Aug 1860, in Oakland,
Michigan
	4. Anna	b. 13 Sep 1789	d. ?
	5. Elizabeth	b. 23 Dec 1791	d. ?
	6. David	b. 22 Sep 1793	d. ?
	7. Huldah	b. 25 Oct 1795	d. 07 Aug 1847
	8. Jemima	b. 07 Nov 1797	d. 20 Dec 1875 in Lorain,
Ohio
	9. Phoebe	b. 28 May 1800	d. ?
	10. Rodah	b. 11 Dec 1802	d. ?
	11. Madison	b. 13 Apr 1804	d. 07 May 1838
	12. Margret	(adopted)

The missing death dates may be unknown because of the high incidents of infant death. Actually I have been scouring around to find an "interim" descendant- one between Josiah (1700) and my Josiah. A number of genealogies list another Josiah (1720) or a Thomas around that time. And so it goes. I have developed a huge chart on the Baldwin's which traces the line back through the Fitzalan's and the Plantagenets to William the Conqueror, then to Charlemagne. Another line takes us through the French Kings and Earls, the Taillifer's and finally, the Great Clovis. Lot's of fun!

Thanks for sending your stuff! I have not filed my materials of some 4,000 names until I can solve some nitty problems like these. It's safely stored on C.D.'s and in the computer. I want to make sure everything has been resolved to my satisfaction first.

Now if I just have the time and strength. I have passed my 82 birthday, live alone in my home in Henderson, NV. having moved here from Minnesota where I served a 37 years professorship at the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis. There's my autobiography!

Thanks again and we'll keep in touch!

Robert,

Also want to mention, on the will for Josiah, the index doesn't tell me the year of filing, so if he had a son named Josiah, the will could belong to either of them so do provide them with the date of death as the index doesn't tell me the date so if there is a Jr., no way to know without the clerk checking. The books are grouped by year and telling her the date of his passing will give her an idea which book to check first, making your request easier for her.

Do hope you have a match and that it provides you with new clues!

You are very welcome!

I too am a DAR member, so allot of people don't know you can purchase member's applications for a minimal fee. I have purchased several for my own research, sometimes they are helpful and sometimes not.

Do check with your library about Heritage Quest, not only can you download the small pensions, but they have some census as well as out of print books too.

Best of luck to you.

Hi Bob,

You may want to ask them if Hanover, NJ about the time of the revolution was part of Morris County. Possible boundary changed or perhaps it was part of Morris County and now considered another county or vise versa.

Just let them know you pension file says this is where he said he lived and he provided it as legal testimony under law.

You received a good response. I have found NJ a very difficult state.

Hello Mr. Jackson,

My name is Dawn Roe from Port Byron, NY. I am the Village Historian. Your inquiry was forwarded to me by Mr. Mike Riley, our Town Historian.

While I do not have access to newspapers for this time period, I do have a couple things that may be of help to you:

Josiah Baldwin is established with the Daughters of the American Revolution. He was pensioned and if you have a membership to Footnote.com, you can download his full pension file. His pension number is S12079. You may also be able to use your library card at Heritage Quest.com to download the smaller version of this same pension.

During the Rev War he lived at Hanover, Morris Co., NJ.

You can order a copy of the DAR Members application by visiting the DAR website. The cost is $10 and they call it a "record copy". You do not need to be a DAR member for this service. This record copy will also provide the list of source records used when the member joined and if you decide you want to purchase that information, the research department can quote you a price for the backup documents on your soldier.

Good news is that our cemetery list does show your Martha, wife of Josiah buried here.

<http://www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~nycayuga/cem/cem117.htm>

Josiah Baldwin does have a will at Cayuga County and you would need to contact:

<http://www.co.cayuga.ny.us/records/index.html>

Bonnie is the lady I usually work at the records center and she is fantastic. They will let you purchase a will by mail but only they can tell you how many pages it is and price.

Hope this is helpful for you and good luck in your search.

Dear Mr. Jackson:

I have spent considerable time accumulating this file. I am adding copies to your permanent Baldwin file. Many of your ancestors lived outside of NY State and I am unable to find materials, consequently. However, I did locate some important documents in the surrogate's office. There are some Baldwins with whom you may be related. I enclosed 'info' from our files.

I hope this research has helped you. Thank you for your family profiles.

>>I am wondering if there might be some County changes about that time. Perhaps Hanover was not in Morris County?

Hanover Township was most of Morris County, pre-Revolution (it encompassed present day Parsippany Township, as well).

NJ Census records show the Baldwins moving back and forth between Morris and Essex counties. Josiah and Josiah Jr are listed in Hanover Township through 1788. Josiah is listed (back) in Newark, Essex County in 1789 and in Orange (Essex Cty) in 1810. (Which cross checks with the other mention we found of a Josiah Baldwin in Orange.) A February 6, 1815 estate inventory in Newark (estate of David Peck) was done by Josiah Baldwin. All this makes it likely that the 1827 Essex County will is that of your ancestor.

Also listed is a Thomas Baldwin, in Hanover 1780 and 1787-1788. He too ends up in Newark, listed as Captain Thomas Baldwin.

To see family movement, see this map
Essex County, Newark and Orange

Note immediately to the west East Hanover/Morris County ... this would have been part of Hanover in the 1770s ...

Subject: Two Quick Questions
To: daryl_7374@Hotmail.com

Two things I thought about that you may have:

1. I printed up the two pictures you sent. I am unable to read the epitath- four lines near the bottom of the stone. There's one on Josiah's stone and also a different one on Martha's- both are two worn for me to make out on the picture. If you have those writings, I would appreciate receiving them. If not, I'll keep trying to make them out. The rest of the stone is great evidence for me. I probably neglected to mention that EVERY genealogy on the Baldwin's tracing my line, Josiah, has a birth date of "abt 1740" , then lists my Josiah's children which, of course, matches my more detailed information. Should I bother sending letters again to these people who have obviously "copied each other" now stating even more evidence to support the 1757 birth date?

2. Another 4th great grandfather of mine was Elias Jackson, Sr. Born 31 Dec 1760, died 30 Nov 1830. He married a Nancy Alexander, born 01 Feb 1760, died 13 Dec 1846. They were married 14 Sep 1780. He was born in New Concord, East Chatham, Columbia, New York. They subsequently moved to Voluntown Twp, New London, Connecticut. He is listed in the Barbour Collection of Vital Records, along with names of his children. The Collection is housed in the State Library at Hartford.

Since Three of his children were born in East Chatham, I assume he was there during the Revolutionary Years. I have no records of his possible participation in the Revolution. Do you have any information you might send me regarding Elias or family? Just a chance, although he might have served in the late 70's or early 80's.

Great talking to you last night and I did get the application form. Some of my information comes from family writings- Porter Lawrence, my 2nd great grandfather, married Martha Baldwin, daughter of James Baldwin and his wife Hannah Cushing. I have a number of Porter's diaries that have passed down to me which contain family information. Can this type of material satisfy the application? My great grandfather, John Jackson, who married Camilla Lawrence, Martha's only child, also kept rather detailed diaries, now in my possession. Many references to the Baldwins are therein cited.

You need to take it easy, Daryl, you have a lot to offer and I don't want you to have another serious health problem. I was diagnosed with cancer in 2000, went through treatments at a California Veterans Hospital and the cancer is seemingly gone. However< I am on daily self-catheterization necessitated by scar tissue which continually closes the urethra, So far it amounts to 2 surgeries per year, and several "stretchings" of the urethra in between. Regarding military service, my father was in WW1, I entered the army in WW2 saw action in France and Germany with the infantry, 3rd division. Closed out my time there in April 1945 and then sent to the States for 14 months of hospitalization for wounds- I was most fortunate!

Have a great weekend- send me your mailing address if you can-

Dear Ms. Boughton,

I have been searching for information concerning the life and times of my 4th great grandfather, Josiah Baldwin (1757-1840), his wife Martha and family. I am preparing genealogy books for my 3 grown children and grandchildren to give them something more of their roots than a name. My father started this effort in the early 1930's but included only limited information on families. The English side of my ancestry all came to America in Colonial times. Surnames of Lawrence, Jackson, Baldwin, Stanton, Cleveland and Sherman are among my earliest known great grandparents.

In communication with Ms. Dawn Roe, the Village Historian from Port Byron suggested I write to you for the information I would like to have. In particular, she indicated that your offices might be able to furnish me with a copy of Josiah's will and other papers which might relate to land purchases, ownerships, and family members. I am eager to complete this work- I am 82 years old and not in the best physical condition. Some of the information I have is given below. Much from my father's work and more recently, upgraded with the availability of material over the internet which is documented.

Your internet website indicated a $15 cost per person for information and copying. I am enclosing a check for $30 to cover your costs for Josiah information and whatever you can find on the wife and family. I will be happy to send additional funds for further costs if needed. Thank you for your efforts on my behalf. You come to me with high recommendations!

I am also interested in knowing the parentage of Josiah. I find much on the internet showing Baldwin's moving around from Milford, Ct. to New Jersey, to Vermont, and to Cayuga County. I haven't been able to decipher this movement but since Josiah was born in New Jersey, I assume that his parents had taken up residence there. I also know that he, and my Lawrence connection were both Revolutionary War Veterans. I am contacting the DAR for information indicating his contribution to that effort.

I appreciate all that you folks do in helping us find our roots and information about them.

Dear Robert,

Thank you for your interest in Cayuga County. I have copied the petition and a citation from the Surrogate's file (Box 13) for Josiah Baldwin. The will wasn't included in the file, so I copied the will and other pages concerning Josiah from Surrogate's Will Book D. Josiah's papers don't name a widow either, so his wife must have predeceased him.

I didn't find any listing in the Surrogate's Index for Martha or most of the other children – from your list, and Josiah's list of heirs, it looks like most of them may have died elsewhere. I did find a listing for a David Baldwin in Box 235. I'm not sure if this is your David, as Josiah's file lists him living in Greenburgh, Decatur County, Indiana, and this file (in Box 235) shows him living in Ira. However, there is an Ester Baldwin at the bottom of his list of heirs, which made me wonder if this is the same Esther who was cited in Josiah's file as the infant daughter of his deceased son Madison. In David's will, David calls Ester and Mary Ann his daughters, but the list of heirs puts them all the way at the bottom. I've also sent copies of this David's petition and will.

I may have created a new mystery for you, but if you have any questions, or if there's any other way we can help you, please let us know.

Sincerely,

We do not find a Josiah Baldwin living or serving from Morris County, NJ. (Could you tell us what indicated he was here during the Revolution?)

We do find:

an 1827 will for a Josiah Baldwin of Essex County, NJ (an extensive Baldwin family there). You can order a copy from the state of NJ for $5, if you like. PB (probate book) 1827, item 11706 is the inventory and will.

In Morris County, we find

Baldwin Farm burial ground, Mendham Borough, was a private family cemetery on the Baldwin Farm. Farm and cemetery long gone ..since at least 1845. [We find Job, Jacob and Caleb Baldwin, wills filed before 1801 in Morris County.]

Records from the Hanover Presbyterian church lists baptism and marriage for people named Baldin (misspelling?), but no Josiah baptised in 1757. A Thomas Baldin married an Anna Allen on July 15, 1756.

"A New Jersey Biographical Index" mentions a Josiah Baldwin, born in Orange, Essex County, in 1755 ..this is probably the gentleman of the 1827 will, above. He is apparently discussed in a book (which we do not own..ask the Henderson library to find and borrow a copy for you)

"Early records of the township of Orange," by Jotham H. Condit, published 1897, pages 6-7.

Another book "Baldwin Genealogy" lists:

Josiah Nathaniel
 Joshial James
 Josiah Benjamin
 Josiah William
 Josial Fredereick
 Josiah nathan
 Josiah John
 Joshia Samuel (3 generations of this name)
 Josiah John
 Josiah Israel
 Joshiah Jesse
 Josiah Thomas

You can use this book in the HeritageQuest database at the Henderson Library. Of note, if your Baldwins began in New England (we find a Josiah Baldwin serving as Captain in Mott's unit of the Connecticut militia during the Revolution) the Henderson Library also has the New England Genealogical index. Bob,

You are most certainly welcome. I have found the Heritage Quest pensions helpful in my own research. One of my ancestors has been an 18 year search and much to my surprise, the last page in Samuel Culver's pension of NJ was a legal paper of Solomon P Culver of Sterling, NY, who was my grandfather where I was stuck! The document says he was a legal heir of the soldier so we finally have placed ourselves within the published family book, being descendants of John Culver of Schooley's Mountain, NJ. Not much was known about this branch so it was a thrill to find his parents and the maiden name of his mother etc, so I can relate to your excitement.

I wasn't sure if you would have access to Heritage Quest with not knowing where you were from and would imagine the offer for free access from a participating library bar code may be a regional offer, so I decided I'd do a quick download for you, just in case you couldn't get it.

I also found on the web that the will at Cayuga County Records Retention is your soldier, so I hope you also obtain it for your records, as you may find more.

Yes, if you do find connection to his parents, I would like to add that to our records. I appreciate you sharing your results.

I have not been a historian long but have been doing genealogy for 20 years, so lots of experience that comes in handy for your type of request. Did our Town Historian ever reply to you?

I'm glad this gave you many new leads and names for the woman. The woman can be even more difficult and a document like this is a gem.

Glad I could be of help.

My dear Dawn:

How can I ever thank you for sending the Heritage Quest materials? IT IS SO MARVELOUS! And you have become a shining star in my genealogical sky! Josiah's own testimony of his revolutionary War experiences is an unbelievable finding! The materials also have given me the surnames, after marriage, of Josiah's daughters---another great find! If I could promote you I would do so immediately!

I have sent a request to the DAR as you suggested. Soon I will complete a first assembly what I have found out and will certainly share it with other Josiah Baldwin researchers I have E-mailed in the past. Now I will attempt to find his parentage which will enable me to connect my ancient Baldwin data to this one.

Again, I owe you my heartfelt thank for all you have done for me and for the Baldwin descendants. I will keep you posted on what goes on from here. If you ever want to visit Las Vegas, you have a most grateful host here- for sure!

Bob,

Glad to hear about the progress.

Actually, I have been trying to get more information on a Daniel Baldwin but it's likely not the same one. The one I'm interested in is a son of Levi Baldwin, born in NJ 1778, lived in Mayfield, NY and died in Troy, NY 1862.

A while back I asked if you had gone through the Bridport deed records in the 1790-1820 or so time frame. There are a number of deeds there which contain the names of Josiah and Thomas Baldwin which might have useful information for you. I have photocopies of some of them and would be happy to send them if you haven't seen them.

I would like to modify and add some items to my online genealogy which would reflect some of the information you have provided. However, I don't want to do so if you want to keep it private for now. Also, if you don't mind my adding it, I'd like to give you credit. Something like;

I sent an Email to the County Historian in Cayuga County, New York, asking about a Josiah Baldwin who passed away in Mentz, Cayuga, in 1840. I also sent names of his children and birth dates. No response until finally a lady named Dawn Roe sent me an Email from Fort Byron, New York. She is the family history person in that community. The original note I sent to the county was forwarded to her and she responded with some information. The ball was now rolling. She suggested that for a small charge, County History Offices will do a search of county records that deal with real estate, taxation, etc. I have now heard from New Jersey. Morris County and Newark with additional information. I am awaiting a request I made of the Daughters of the American Revolution for any applications or files on Josiah Baldwin. Things are beginning to clarify in my mind which will result, I hope, in a biographical paper on Josiah to add to my other biographies of my

I did get some materials on a Daniel Baldwin. Does this ring any bells for you? I don't have any record of him in my genealogy. I will be out of town this next week, Wednesday to Saturday so I won't get a chance to really dig in until I return. There IS information out there!!

I certainly would like to know more about Josiah Baldwin and his relationship with the Cushing family. I would be particularly interested in any biographical sketch that you may be able to provide.

I had three horses back when I was younger in Calgary, Alberta. None of them were racing ponies though: two paints and a Shetland pony that couldn't outrun a dachshund. I spent a lot of time ogling the jumpers at Spruce Meadows and the barrel racers at the Calgary Stampede though. Sometimes I even noticed the horses they were riding too. 🐾

We do not find a Josiah Baldwin living or serving from Morris County, NJ. (Could you tell us what indicated he was here during the Revolution?)

We do find:

an 1827 will for a Josiah Baldwin of Essex County, NJ (an extensive Baldwin family there). You can order a copy from the state of NJ for $5, if you like. PB (probate book) 1827, item 11706 is the inventory and will.

In Morris County, we find

Baldwin Farm burial ground, Mendham Borough, was a private family cemetery on the Baldwin Farm. Farm and cemetery long gone ..since at least 1845. [We find Job, Jacob and Caleb Baldwin, wills filed before 1801 in Morris County.]

Records from the Hanover Presbyterian church lists baptism and marriage for people named Baldwin (misspelling?), but no Josiah baptised in 1757. A Thomas Baldwin married an Anna Allen on July 15, 1756.

"A New Jersey Biographical Index" mentions a Josiah Baldwin, born in Orange, Essex County, in 1755 ..this is probably the gentleman of the 1827 will, above. He is apparently discussed in a book (which we do not own..ask the Henderson library to find and borrow a copy for you)

"Early records of the township of Orange," by Jotham H. Condit, published 1897, pages 6-7.

Another book "Baldwin Genealogy" lists:

Josiah Nathaniel
 Josiah James
 Josiah Benjamin
 Josiah William
 Josiah Fredereick
 Josiah nathan
 Josiah John
 Josiah Samuel (3 generations of this name)
 Josiah John
 Josiah Israel
 Josiah Jesse
 Josiah Thomas

You can use this book in the HeritageQuest database at the Henderson Library. Of note, if your Baldwins began in New England (we find a Josiah Baldwin serving as Captain in Mott's unit of the Connecticut militia during the Revolution) the Henderson Library also has the New England Genealogical index.

>>I am wondering if there might be some County changes about that time. Perhaps Hanover was not in Morris County?

Hanover Township was most of Morris County, pre-Revolution (it encompassed present day Parsippany Township, as well).

NJ Census records show the Baldwins moving back and forth between Morris and Essex counties. Josiah and Josiah Jr are listed in Hanover Township through 1788. Josiah is listed (back) in Newark, Essex County in 1789 and in Orange (Essex Cty) in 1810. (Which cross checks with the other mention we found of a Josiah Baldwin in Orange.) A February 6, 1815 estate inventory in Newark (estate of David Peck) was done by Josiah Baldwin. All this makes in likely that the 1827 Essex County will is that of your ancestor.

Also listed is a Thomas Baldwin, in Hanover 1780 and 1787-1788. He too ends up in Newark, listed as Captain Thomas Baldwin.

To see family movement, see this map

Essex County, Newark and Orange

Note immediately to the west East Hanover/Morris County ... this would have been part of Hanover in the 1770s ...

Hi Bob,

Sorry about the delay in getting back to you. I have been travelling.

I'm not sure that the "2nd" notation would make certain that he was the Grandson of the elder Thomas. It's an interesting possibility, though, but just might be a way to distinguish the two in legal documents.

Thomas Baldwin(1) appears to have been a real estate tycoon in Bridport at that time. There were a great many deed records that he was involved in. He also had a sawmill on his property.

When Thomas(1) died in 1813, he left land to his children and Grandchildren. There were many deed records swapping and selling this land. These all contained a phrase similar to "which our honoured Grandfather Thomas Baldwin gave to us". These helped identify some of the children and grandchildren of Thomas. I don't remember seeing any that would indicate that Josiah was a son or Thomas(2) was a Grandson. I wasn't really looking for this, though.

I'm attaching a list of what I know about the children and grandchildren of Thomas(1).

Regards,

Dave

I noticed that all of the legal documents jointly or individually signed by Josiah or Thomas Baldwin use the name "Thomas Baldwin, 2nd" This has helped me identify Josiah's father as Thomas Baldwin. I had 2 possibilities to consider from the Morris County Records. One was a Josiah and the other Thomas Baldwin. I believe that Thomas was Josiah's (1757) father; thus making a case for Thomas, 2nd. I will try to find a little more info on Thomas, although I do know he had several sons, one of whom was Josiah.

Hi Sally! I just wanted you to know tha I have been working quite hard in trying to find a link to Josiah Baldwin's ancestry. I have received a number of items from the Essex/Morris County Librarian. I have completed a descendants listing for a Josiah Baldwin, born in 1755 in Orange, New Jersey. My original thought was that this Josiah Baldwin's ancestors might lead me to our Josiah's ancestry.

There is no question that the two are not one! Our Josiah did in fact, go to Bridport, VT. while the other Josiah remained in Orange, New Jersey, married a Lydia Ogden and raised a family of 11 children, I have not been able to find any additional information on a Josiah Baldwin in Hanover. County lines changed often which compounds the problem. The Essex librarian did indicate a lot of movement in and out of New Jersey by the Baldwin family- frequently to Connecticut, Milford and New Haven.

Briefly, the Josiah Baldwin of Orange is the son of Benjamin Baldwin III, who was the son of Benjamin Baldwin II, who was the son of Benjamin Baldwin I, who was the son of Joseph Baldwin, one of the first settlers in Milford, Connecticut in 1639, who was the son of Richard Baldwin of Cholesbury, Buckinghamshire, England.

Josiah Baldwin of Orange did have a son named Josiah O. Baldwin, born in 1796, clearly not our Josiah.

Since Richard Baldwin had several other sons, namely Timothy and Nathaniel. I have not yet completed the trace of those two brothers. Josiah of Orange also had two brothers, Jephtha and Uzal, both of whom married and raised families in New Jersey

Sometimes it is important to show that there is NOT a blood relationship among those possessing the same surname. I will continue to research for the connections between our Josiah of Hanover and the additional Baldwins found in New Jersey.

I don't have your mother's Email address so I trust you will send this info to her. Thanks, Sally

Bob

I think I am on track at this point. I have read several documents from a librarian for Essex and Morris County. The last document contained 7-8 pages of material. I have found called The "Geographical and Genealogical History of the State of New Jersey, Vol. 2, Part 2, 1898 by Lewis Publishing Company, New York, New York. I have also received a copy of the last will and testament of a Josiah Baldwin born in 1755 in Orange, New Jersey. I was able to put together a rather definitive genealogy, going from Richard Baldwin, Cheshambury, Bucks, England to this Josiah Baldwin. Together with the Will and Testament I have Josiah of Orange, New Jersey CANNOT be our Joseph of Hanover, for he had never left New Jersey--was married and raised a family there. None of his children listed in his Will are the same as those listed in the Will of Josiah of Hanover.

In addition, I have received information from a library source that have records of John Baldwin 1619-1685 and his wife, Mary Camp (1648) of Milford, Connecticut, having a son John Baldwin (1640 - d. 1720). John Baldwin (1640) married Hannah Green and came to Newark, New Jersey in 1683. His son John (1670) lived in Hanover, New Jersey.

John Baldwin (1670-1743) then had a son Josiah, born 1701 had a son, Thomas (1728-1815). This Thomas was the father of Josiah of Hanover whose Revolutionary War record and descendants are well verified. Josiah's eldest son Thomas (1755 - 1815) lived in Laram County, Ohio and is buried there.

It appears that the descendants are as follow:

John Baldwin (1619 - 1685) - Mary Camp

Hi Bob,

This is great news. You've done a lot of good work in getting this information together.

I can't remember it I asked you before but, if it's OK with you, I'd like to update my own online genealogy with some of this info. If it is OK, how should I give you credit – use your name or "Stoneyjax 75"?

Dear "Sally's Mom!" Thank you so much for the materials you sent. I will soon be processing that information and run a comparison with what I have discovered from earlier searches. You did provide exactly what I needed regarding Thomas, Josiah's father. One of the thing I was looking for was a list of Josiah's (1757) siblings. Thanks for sending that material. By the way, as I continue to prepare ancestral books for my children and grandchildren, I would like to give you credit for helping me over a huge hurdle. I'll plan on that unless you prefer otherwise.

Also, I have been in touch with a David Baldwin, now retired and living in Florida. His specialty was the Baldwin's in Bridport, Addison, Vermont. He sent copies of the Thomas/Josiah land purchases in Bridport and a listing of Thomas' children and grandchildren. There are some discrepancies I noted when comparing lists. He may have included some Baldwin's who might have been cousins in Bridport. I will be working to sort this out.

David has listed the following as children of Thomas and Anna:

Jane, Sally, Christian (female) married David Burwell, John, Lewis, Isaac. I'll try to get a document of verification from David- at least his source of info.

Another interesting note: The high number of deaths that occurred in 1811-13. In reading about the history of Vermont I came cross a scholarly book with the title "The Emigration from Vermont." Of course, one of the causes might have been the War of 1812 and its effect on Vermont, but another was an epidemic of a killing disease that swept through the state. I'll see if I have those "causes" listed in my files. Two other lines of mine, 4th great grandfather John Lawrence, Sr. resided in Bennington and served during the revolution also, and John Stanton, another 4th great grandfather who lived in Pownal, Vt. Anyway, back to work! And thanks again Betsey, I'll keep in touch as things progress.

Hi,

Wow, you've really had a string of medical problems! I can't believe all those doctors missed the cloudy membrane. Actually, that's a relatively common problem after cataract surgery. I had to have it done in one of my eyes. In my case it wasn't bad enough that I even noticed it -- the doctor found it first.

Since we last messaged, I've had heart surgery to have the aortic valve replaced with a calf valve. At this point, I've recovered completely.

Thanks for the new information. Some differs from what I have but I suspect yours is more accurate because of the source. Some is brand new.

Oh, yes, Baldwins can marry other Baldwins. In fact I have a case where Eunice Baldwin (Daughter of Levi) married Isaac N Baldwin son of Thomas (the one born 1736). They weren't that closely related, though. Their common ancestor was Sylvester Baldwin, the one who died on the passage from England in 1635.

Also, my Great Great Grandmother, Mahitabel Burwell married Lemuel Baldwin (Grandson of Levi). While her surname wasn't Baldwin, she was a GrandDaughter of the same Thomas Baldwin.

It appears there were three separate Baldwin families in Bridport, Vt that weren't closely related. All three families came from Morris Cty, NJ.

Glad to hear your back in action,

Dave

While lollygagging around the house I came up with a new, but unsubstantiated idea about Josiah's wife Martha. No one has been able to identify Martha's surname, so--- I thought that her surname was also BALDWIN, perhaps a cousin of Josiah. The Baldwin's were so prolific in the New Jersey and Milford area as well as the Bridport area, it is not impossible that cousins were married. What do you think?????

Valley Forge. Other assignments are described in the 3 page testimony. I am sorting through the myriad of items I have received and will be spending time now in writing up a short biographical sketch of his life and times. It turns out that the birth date I have in 1757 is the correct one, not the 1740 described in many genealogies that I have examined. Anyway, if interested in any of this, let me know.

Had a great time at Del Mar in late August. Made the trip to the race track for 4 days! I thoroughly enjoyed it and, for a change, made a little money on the ponies. I was fortunate enough to own thoroughbreds with a couple of partners until just after my retirement in 1994. Expensive hobby, but I really do live it. Great animals! I think I have been hitting Del Mar each late summer for the last 10 years of so. I sure do love the Great Pacific ocean there!

Hope you are in good health,

Bob

Pssst...Have you heard the news? There's a new fashion blog, plus the latest fall trends and hair styles at StyleList.com.

The earliest dates available for the Jackson branch of our family show John Lawrence born in Vermont on March 2, 1746, thirty years before the Revolutionary War. His wife, Mary Cleveland was born January 17, 1749. Other early dates include John Stanton, born May 2, 1748; his wife, Mary, on November 7, 1749; Josiah Baldwin, born March 4, 1757; his wife, Martha, March 25, 1762. Vermont was the home of all these families. The towns of Burlington and Bennington appear in the records.

The Jacksons were also New Englanders. Elias Jackson, Sr., was born December 31, 1760, and his wife, Nancy Alexander, February 2, 1760. It is believed they were also Vermonsters. Tradition maintains that all of these families came from England in the 17th century. However, no exact dates or names of places are available except those above. There is also the legend that one of these forefathers was a soldier of the Revolutionary War--perhaps it was Josiah Baldwin. At least that is the claim by some of the Baldwin descendants.

In the 18th century children from these families began to migrate westward. They first settled in New York state, near Skaneateles, in the Syracuse area. Children were born there before the westward trek continued.

The earliest dates available for the Jackson branch of our family show John Jackson born in Vermont in March 2, 1744, thirty years before the Revolutionary War. His wife, Mary, Cleveland was born January 17, 1749.
Other early dates include John's second son, born May 2, 1782;
his wife, Mary, on November 2, 1785; Joseph Baldwin, born March 2, 1787; his wife, Sarah, March 22, 1791; Vermont was the first of all places for us. The towns of Burlington and Essex were also in the records.

The Jacksons were also in England. Ellen
Jackson, 22, was born December 11, 1750, and his wife, Mary Alexander, February 2, 1750. It is believed they were also Vermonters. Tradition maintains that all of these families came from England in the 17th century. However, no exact dates or names of places are available for these families. There is also the record that one of these families was a soldier of the Revolutionary War. Jacksons was found in the records that is the only one of the family in the records.

In the 18th century children from the families came to these states. They first settled in New York and, were transferred, in the 19th century, to the new land before the war, first continued.

Initially, the settlers conceived of Newark as their theocratic haven, where they could live by their own covenant with God. They adopted the same sort of theocratic structure as they had envisioned for the New Haven colony, wherein they elected church elders to be in charge of the civic affairs and restricted full church membership to those who had experienced a religious conversion. In the early decades of settlement, Newark seemed to afford its colonists their last hope of a theocratic utopia, settlers adopted the name of Newark.⁴⁰ A somewhat different, and perhaps more romantic story relates that the name of Newark was morphed from the term "New-Work", as the settlers envisioned the new settlement as their new work with God, and in the original documents pertaining to the settlement, it was spelled "New Work".⁴¹ Regardless of the origin, the name Newark was established after the arrival of their spiritual leader, Reverend Pierson, in 1668. The settlement quickly grew to a population of approximately 75 settlers by the end of 1668.⁴²

THE FAMILY OF THOMAS BALDWIN
1736 - 1815

Thomas Baldwin, my 5th great grandfather was born in 1736 in Morris County, New Jersey. He and his wife, Anna R. Allen, were married in Hanover, Morris, New Jersey in the Presbyterian Church on 15 Jul 1756. Anna was born in 1737 and died in 1811 in Bridport, Addison, Vermont. Following the Revolutionary War, Thomas (1736), Josiah (1757), and Josiah (1701), and their families all relocated from Hanover, New Jersey to Bridport, Addison, Vermont. The grandfather Josiah was in his 80's at the time of the move. Thomas and son Josiah bought and sold numerous pieces of property in Bridport. (See the section, Land Transactions for details)

The reasons for the move to Bridport are not clear. A number of Baldwin's had taken up residence in and around that township earlier. These Baldwin's could have been close relatives, departing Milford and Newark seeking a better life. The fact that Thomas (1736) took his father, Josiah, at such an advanced age one might think the time had come for a return to the comforts of an extended Baldwin family. Several of Josiah's (1701) siblings were residents of Bridport. In any case, the move took place in 1789 when the younger Thomas (1785) was 4 years old and young James, our 3rd great grandfather was 2 years old.

Times were turbulent during the early 1800's. President Jefferson's Embargo Act of 1807, although totally unenforceable, caused additional damage to the economy of Vermont and certainly helped push America to the War of 1812. In addition, the ravages of epidemics of various diseases passed in waves through the Vermont landscape. Spotted Fever and Scarlet Fever were two such epidemics. It appears that the natural immune system was totally ineffective in fighting off those infected. Josiah's brother John and John's wife Mary died within days of each other in 1813; John at age 51. Josiah's second brother Lewis died one month later at age 47. It is not known whether they passed from disease or some other malady of the day.

These events and other hardships endured during that time must have been in the mind of Josiah and convinced him to move the New York. The location in Mentz, Cayuga County seemed to be a perfect spot for him and his children. It is here he spent his final days.

In an effort to substantiate the lineage of Josiah Baldwin, 4th great grandfather, I obtained a copy of the Last Will and Testament of Josiah Baldwin of Orange, Essex, New Jersey. Earlier research had shown that our Josiah Baldwin, Hanover, Morris, New Jersey had left New Jersey with his family and settled in Bridport, Addison, Vermont followed by a move to Mentz, Cayuga, New York, where he spent the rest of his life. It was possible that Josiah of Orange, N.J. could be a father or a cousin of our Josiah Baldwin.

The Will and Testament I obtained, No. 11706G, Josiah Baldwin, dated 30 January 1826, was proved 06 August 1827, and recorded in Book D of Wills, pp. 507 – 520, filed by the Surrogate Judge of Essex County, New Jersey, H. F. Randolph..

Josiah (Orange County) and his wife Lydia, had the following children born to them:

1. Abraham Baldwin, Eldest son
2. Samuel Baldwin
3. Josiah O. Baldwin
4. Rachel Baldwin Munson
5. Sarah Baldwin Harrison
6. Polly Baldwin, (wife of Cyrus Baldwin)
7. Abby Baldwin
8. Harriet Baldwin
9. Betsey Baldwin Lindsley
 - a. Josiah O. Lindsley
 - b. Lydia Lindsley
 - c. Evelina Lindsley
 - d. Abraham Lindsley

All of the above are mentioned in Josiah's (Orange County) Will.

While it is clear that Josiah of Orange, New Jersey could not be our Josiah of Hanover, there remains a possibility that the two Josiah's could be distant cousins. There is no indication found in the material studied that they ever met or knew each other.

My initial contact in Morris County, New Jersey, was Sara Weismann, of the Morris County Library. Her note states: "...Census records show the Baldwins moving back and forth between Morris and Essex Counties. Josiah and Josiah Jr. are listed in Hanover Township through 1788. Josiah is listed back in Newark, Essex County in 1789 and in 1815, a Josiah Baldwin did a David Peck Estate Inventory in Newark." She also indicated that a Thomas Baldwin was listed in Hanover in 1780 and in 1787-88. He ends up in Newark listed as "Captain Thomas Baldwin." Additional work needs t be done on this "Thomas" Baldwin.

One more thing adds to the mystic of the Baldwins in New Jersey. Josiah of Orange's Last Will and Testament contains the following passages:

"...I give and devise to my eldest son, Abraham Baldwin and his heirs and assigns, forever, a certain lot of land purchased by me in part of Joseph Baldwin, deceased, and in part of Urah Baldwin having a wood lot of about seven acres situated in the township of Orange aforesaid lying between the Wheeler lot and the lot called the old Field, subject, however, to this change and encumbrance. And it is expressly demised upon this condition that the said Abraham Baldwin shall pay off and discharge a certain Bond (smudged out) sixty pounds given by me to Eunice Baldwin, the daughter of the said Joseph Baldwin, deceased, and now due and owing." The unpublished research done by Olin D. Jackson, beginning in the 1930's, lists the family of Josiah (1757) Baldwin and his wife Martha. The first child on the list is Eunice Baldwin, born 24 Aug 1783, and her death as 02 Nov 1801. No other research has listed a Eunice Baldwin as a child of Josiah and Martha. It is not unusual to find early deaths omitted from the list of offspring, but would probably not be dropped for a child 18 years of age. The Family Search data has a Eunice Baldwin as born 04 Sep 1783 in Bloomfield, New Jersey and her death as 26 Nov. 1806. This record shows a marriage to Jephtha Dodd on 01 Feb 1804.

The Will is clear in its statement that Eunice Baldwin was the daughter of Joseph Baldwin, deceased at the time of the writing of the Will. I have been unable to find any information on this Joseph Baldwin. The search is complicated because of the multiplicity of the name Joseph about 1750-1820 in New Jersey.

Here is the transcript of the Last Will and Testament of Josiah Baldwin of Orange, Essex, New Jersey.

In the name of God, amen. I, Josiah Baldwin of the Township of Orange in the County of Essex and the State of New Jersey being weak in body but of sound mind, memory and understanding for which blessing I thank God, and knowing the uncertainty of life and that it is appointed unto all men once to die. And if any of said grandchildren should die before me then my will is that this Lot of land shall be equally divided among the survivors. Item. I give and bequeath unto my brother, Jeptha Baldwin, and my two oldest sons, Abraham Baldwin and Samuel Baldwin, and the survivors of them eight hundred dollars to be paid in two years from my decease with interest annually which here I charge upon my real estate hereinafter demised to my son, Josiah O. Baldwin, and interest shall be paid by him, to be taken and received by the said Jeptha, Abraham, and Samuel Baldwin and the survivors of them in Trust to pay over the same with interest to my four following named daughters in equal shares and in the manner following to wit, to my daughter Rachel (Baldwin) Munson, wife of Caleb Munson, deceased, the sum of two hundred dollars with interest from my death, to my daughter Sarah (Baldwin) Harrison, wife of Joel Harrison, the sum of two hundred dollars with interest from my death. To my daughter Polly (Baldwin) Baldwin, wife of Cyrus Baldwin, the sum of two hundred dollars with interest from my death, and to my daughter, Abby (Baldwin) Baldwin, wife of Joel Baldwin, the sum of two hundred dollars with interest from my death, and it is my will and intention that the respective husbands of my said daughters shall have no control power or right to the said money in any way or manner but that the same shall be paid over to my daughters by my Trustees aforesaid upon the separate receipt and discharge of my daughters only and in such form and at such time as my said trustees in their direction shall think proper. And in case any of my said daughters should die before me be paid to her children surviving her, share and share alike. Item. I give and bequeath unto my youngest daughter, Harriet Baldwin, the sum of three hundred dollars to be paid to her in two years after my decease with interest annually from my death by my son Josiah O. Also, it is my will and intention that such furniture and the two cows that have been called and known heretofore as the property of my daughter Harriet shall belong to her absolutely. 05 Feb 2009

In an effort to substantiate the lineage of Josiah Baldwin, 4th great grandfather, I obtained a copy of the Last Will and Testament of Josiah Baldwin of Orange, Essex, New Jersey. Earlier research had shown that our Josiah Baldwin, Hanover, Morris, New Jersey had left New Jersey with his family and settled in Bridport, Addison, Vermont followed by a move to Mentz, Cayuga, New York, where he spent the rest of his life. It was possible that Josiah of Orange, N.J. could be a father or a cousin of our Josiah Baldwin.

The Will and Testament I obtained, No. 11706G, Josiah Baldwin, dated 30 January 1826, was proved 06 August 1827, and recorded in Book D of Wills, pp. 507 – 520, filed by the Surrogate Judge of Essex County, New Jersey, H. F. Randolph.

Josiah (Orange County) and his wife Lydia, had the following children born to them:

1. Abraham Baldwin, Eldest son
2. Samuel Baldwin
3. Josiah O. Baldwin
4. Rachel Baldwin Munson
5. Sarah Baldwin Harrison
6. Polly Baldwin, (wife of Cyrus Baldwin)
7. Abby Baldwin
8. Harriet Baldwin
9. Betsey Baldwin Lindsley
 - a. Josiah O. Lindsley
 - b. Lydia Lindsley
 - c. Evelina Lindsley
 - d. Abraham Lindsley

All of the above are mentioned in Josiah's (Orange ^{Twp.} ~~County~~) Will.

While it is clear that Josiah of Orange, New Jersey could not be our Josiah of Hanover, there remains a possibility that the two Josiah's could be distant cousins. There is no indication found in the material studies that they ever met or know each other.

My initial contact in Morris County, New Jersey, was Sara Weismann, of the Morris County Library. Her note states: "... Census records show the Baldwins moving back and forth between Morris and Essex Counties. Josiah and Josiah Jr. are listed in Hanover Township through 1788. Josiah is listed back in Newark, Essex County in 1789 and in 1815, a Josiah Baldwin did a David Peck Estate Inventory in Newark." She also indicated that a Thomas Baldwin was listed in Hanover in 1780 and in 1787-88. He ends up in Newark listed as "Captain Thomas Baldwin." Additional work needs to be done on this "Thomas" Baldwin.

One more thing adds to the mystic of the Baldwins in New Jersey. Josiah's Last Will and Testament contains the following passages:

"...I give and devise to my eldest son, Abraham Baldwin and his heirs and assigns, forever, a certain lot of land purchased by me in part of Joseph Baldwin, deceased, and in part of Urah Baldwin having a wood lot of about seven acres situated in the township of Orange aforesaid lying between the Wheeler lot and the lot called the old Field, subject, however, to this change and encumbrance. And it is expressly demised upon this condition that the said Abraham Baldwin shall pay off and discharge a certain Bond (smudged out) sixty pounds given by me to Eunice Baldwin, the daughter of the said Joseph Baldwin, deceased, and now due and owing." The unpublished research done by Olin D. Jackson, beginning in the 1930's, lists the family of Josiah (1757) Baldwin and his wife Martha. The first child on the list is Eunice Baldwin, born 24 Aug 1783, and her death as 02 Nov 1801. No other research has listed a Eunice Baldwin as a child of Josiah and Martha. It is not unusual to find early deaths omitted from the list of offspring, but would probably not be dropped for a child 18 years of age. The Family Search data has a Eunice Baldwin as born 04 Sep 1783 in Bloomfield, New Jersey and her death as 26 Nov. 1806. This record shows a marriage to Jephtha Dodd on 01 Feb 1804.

The Will is clear in its statement that Eunice Baldwin was the daughter of Joseph Baldwin, deceased at the time of the writing of the Will. I have been unable to find any information on this Joseph Baldwin. The search is complicated because of the multiplicity of the name Joseph about 1750-1820 in New Jersey.

Here is the transcript of the Last Will and Testament of Josiah Baldwin of Orange, Essex, New Jersey.

In the name of God, amen. I, Josiah Baldwin of the Township of Orange in the County of Essex and the State of New Jersey being weak in body but of sound mind, memory and understanding for which blessing I thank God, and knowing the uncertainty of life and that it is appointed unto all men once to die. Do make and publish this, my last Will and Testament in manner and form following, that is to say. First. It is my will and I do order that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid and satisfied as soon as conveniently can be after my decease and by my son, Josiah O. Baldwin, except a debt I owe Eunice Baldwin. Item- I give and bequeath unto my wife Lydia over and above and in addition to her right of Dower in my lands at the common order, all my household furniture and one cow to be selected by her out of any that may belong to me at my death. And it is my will that this furniture and cow shall be absolutely the property of my wife and subject to her disposal at her death. Item. I give and devise to my eldest son, Abraham Baldwin, and his heirs and assigns forever a certain Lot of land, purchased by me in part of Joseph Baldwin deceased, and in part of Urah Baldwin having a wood lot of about seven acres situated in the township of Orange aforesaid, lying between the Wheeler Lot and the lot called the old Field subject however to this charge and encumbrance and it is expressly devised upon this condition that the said Abraham Baldwin shall pay off and discharge a certain Bond (blacked out on photocopy) sixty pounds given by me to Eunice Baldwin, the daughter of the said Joseph Baldwin deceased and now due and owing. Item: I give, demise, and bequeath unto my son, Samuel Baldwin, and his heirs and assigns the wood standing and growing on the Wheeler Lot to be cut down and carried off from the premises by him within two years after my decease. Item. I give and demise unto my grandchildren, Josiah O. Lindsley, Lydia Lindsley, Eveline Lindsley and Abraham Lindsley, children of my daughter Betsey, deceased, and to their heirs and assigns share and share alike a certain Lot of land called and known as the old Field, as the fence now stands. And if any of said grandchildren should die before me then my will is that this Lot of land shall be equally divided among the survivors. Item. I give and bequeath unto my brother, Jeptha Baldwin, and my two oldest sons, Abraham Baldwin and Samuel Baldwin, and the survivors of them eight hundred dollars to be paid in two years from my decease with interest annually which here I charge upon my real estate hereinafter demised to my son, Josiah O. Baldwin, and interest shall be paid by him, to be taken and received by the said Jeptha, Abraham, and Samuel Baldwin and the survivors of them in Trust to pay over the same with interest to my four following named daughters in equal shares and in the manner following to wit, to my daughter Rachel (Baldwin) Munson, wife of Caleb Munson, deceased, the sum of two hundred dollars with interest from my death, to my daughter Sarah (Baldwin) Harrison, wife of Joel Harrison, the sum of two hundred dollars with interest from my death. To my daughter Polly (Baldwin) Baldwin, wife of Cyrus Baldwin, the sum of two hundred dollars with interest from my death, and to my daughter, Abby (Baldwin) Baldwin, wife of Joel Baldwin, the sum of two hundred dollars with interest from my death, and it is my will and intention that the respective husbands of my said daughters shall have no control power or right to the said money in any way or manner but that the same shall be paid over to my daughters by my Trustees aforesaid upon the separate receipt and discharge of my daughters only and in such form and at such time as my said trustees in their direction shall think proper. And in case any of my said daughters should die before me be paid to her children surviving her, share and share alike. Item. I give and bequeath unto my youngest daughter, Harriet Baldwin, the sum of three hundred dollars to be paid to her in two years after my decease with interest annually from my death by my son Josiah O. Baldwin and for the payment of which from the land hereinafter demised to him is encumbered and charged. Also, it is my will and intention that such furniture and the two cows that have been called and known heretofore as the property of my daughter Harriet shall belong to her absolutely. Also that my daughter Harriet shall have during the time that she remains unmarried a home in my homestead and two rooms on the east end of my house one on the first story and one upstairs with the privilege of keeping one cow on the place, and sufficient firewood to support one fire; also fruit and all other usual privileges of tenants. Item. All the rest residue and remainder of my estate, real and personal, including all my homestead farm, salt meadow and other estate not hereinbefore demised or bequeathed, I give, bequeath and demise unto my youngest son, Josiah O. Baldwin and his heirs and assigns forever, but the same is hereby expressly charged and encumbered and I do charge and encumber the heirs with the payment of all my debts, (except my debt to Eunice Baldwin) my funeral charges and with the payment of all my legacies and bequests heretofore made. And in case my son Josiah O. Baldwin shall refuse and decline to payment of the same charged upon my estate demised to him, then my will is and I order and direct my Executors hereinafter named to sell so much of my lands to demised as may be necessary to pay off such legacies and debts. Lastly I constitute, name and appoint my three sons, Abraham Baldwin, Samuel Baldwin, and Josiah O. Baldwin Executors of this my Last Will and Testament hereby revoking all former wills by me made and declaring this as and for my last will and testament—

In witness whereof I have hereunto signed my name and set my seal hereto this thirtieth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twnty-six. (1826)

Descendants of John Baldwin

Generation No. 1

1. JOHN¹ BALDWIN was born June 24, 1619 in Aston-Clinton, Bucks County, England, and died June 21, 1681 in Milford, Conn.. He married (1) MARY CAMP 1639, daughter of NICHOLAS CAMP and SARAH ELLIOTT. She was born June 12, 1634 in St. Julian's, Shrewsbury, England, and died September 02, 1670 in Milford, Ct..

Notes for JOHN BALDWIN:

Came to Connecticut with the other Milford, Baldwins. John Baldwin's name was very common in Bucks , England at that time. He might have been brother of Sylvester? Sylvester died on the passage in 1638. May have been cousin of Sylvester? Unlikely, a nephew? February, 1639, Milford, Conn. Was purchased from the Indians, settlement made during the year and Nov 29, 1639 the name "free" planters appears in Milford Records. John Baldwin was considered a "settler", because he was not a church member. Milford was a religious community or colony. He joined the church March 19, 1648. His homestead was original lot #13, in Milford, on west side of the river. A little north west of the town hall, on the premises now or lately occupied by Rev. Asa M. Train(1875). He moved to Newark, N.J. a year or after 1666, but returned to Milford.

In his Will 1680, he appt. cousin Nicholas Camp as overseer of his estate, term "cousin" applied to wife's uncle is unusual, but cousin use to denote almost any relationship that was not immediate.

"In March 1605/06, Alexander Bryan married Anne Baldwin, daughter of Robert and Joan Baldwin of North Church, Hertfordshire. Robert Baldwin was the son of Henry and Alice (King) Baldwin of Dundryge, in the parish of Aston Clinton, Buckinghamshire, adjoining Aylesbury."

Baldwin Genealogy, Supplement, 990:

"12. Robert³ Henry² Richard¹. He was the fourth and youngest son of Henry and Alice Baldwin. To him were devised lands in Flaunden, Hempstead, and elsewhere in Hertfordshire. His will as of North Church Herts, dated 22 March, 1605/6, was proved there April 1st following, by his brother Richard, his executor. After small bequests to his aunt Lettice Foster, of Tring, and to the poor of St. Leonard's and Cholesbury, he left his estate to his wife Joane and his daughter Anne. He evidently died young, and Anne was an infant."

Baldwin Genealogy, Supplement, p 990:

Alexander Bryan or Bryant, was son of Thomas of Aylesbury. His autograph shows his old age. He was well educated. [signature].

Alexander and his wife were among the first settlers in Milford, Conn., in 1639. He was a man of great influence in the Colony of New Haven, and after the union with Connecticut assistant from 1668 to 1673. She died 1661. In 1663, he and his son sold the property in Wendover to Edward Baldwin⁵ Henry⁴ Richard.³ The original deed is in my possession, and I add from it the autograph of [signature of Richard Bryan]."

"10. Sylvester³ Henry² Richard¹. His elder brother having died childless, the line continued through him. He was living at the date of his grandmother's will in 1565/6, and evidently dead at the date of his brother Richard 16 Feb'y, 1632/3. He m., as appears by Cholesbury records, 28 Sept. 1590, Jane Wells. In the pedigree entered by his grandson in the herald's visitation of Buckinghamshire, 1669, he is called of Milton, in Bedfordshire. In Milton Ernest, near Bedford, his own name does not appear, but the marriage and burial of one of his daughters does, and perhaps the burial of is eldest son. By the death of Richard, Dundridge came into the possession of his son Henry, and continued in the line of his descendants until the year 1748, when it was sold out of the family.

16. George died young and buried in Cholesburg, 21 Nov. 1596. 17. John, living 1599/1600, but evidently dead in 1632/3, when Henry is named as next heir of his uncle Richard. He was no doubt the one buried at Milton Ernest, 10 Feb'y, 1631/2. He was church warden there 1627, 1629, 1630. It is probable he died unmarried. He made a will but it has disappeared. 18. Henry.+ 19. Sylvester.+ 20. Richard.+ 21. William.+ 22. Jane, living 1622. 23. Alice. She m. 4 May, 1629, John Edwards, of Milton Ernest, and was buried there the next 6th of July."

He m. in England, Sarah Bryan, no doubt a relative of Alexander Bryan. She survived and married Capt. John Astwood, a leading citizen of Milford, who died in London as Agent of the Colony. See Historical Document.

Individual History:

John Baldwin was born in Buckinghamshire, Eng. by 1612, as he is presumed of full age in 1633, the date of his Uncle Richard Baldwin's will. The name of his first wife was Mary but whether he married her in England or America is unknown. She died between 1651, when the last child was born, and Aug. 15, 1652, when he married Mary Bruen. The Milford Conn. vital records read: "John Baldwin, Sr.' married (no date) Marie (Mary) Brewen, dau. of John, of Pequot." Another copy of the Milford records reads: " Aug15-----" As "Mary wife of John Baldwin, Sr." was admitted to the Milford church on April 30, 1653, the blank date must be 1652. John Bruen was a well-known English Puritan, which accounts for his mention in the marriage record, although he died in England. Pequot was the early name for New London, where Mary lived with her distinguished brother Obadiah Bruen. Mary was baptized at Tarvin, Cheshire, Eng. June 14, 1622, and died Sept. 2, 1670, in Milford, where John was buried June 21, 1681. John Baldwin was named in the will of his grandmother, Alice Baldwin in 1622, his uncle Richard Baldwin, 1633, and his only brother Richard Baldwin in 1634. His brother Richard died unmarried and John probably inherited his estate, and that of his father, who died in 1637, before the group of Baldwins emigrated to New England. John therefore had assets to cover the expense of the voyage. These Baldwins came in the ship Martin which sailed in 1638. John, being the eldest John Baldwin on the ship (the other Johns being young boys) was undoubtedly the John Baldwin who witnessed the nuncupative will of Sylvester Baldwin, proved in Boston, Mass., July 4, 1639. This Sylvester, his cousin, died at sea but his wife and six children settled in New England, where the wife was one of the largest landholders. John Baldwin settled in Mildord, and he was called "John Baldwin t6eh settler" in the first list, not a "Free Planter", because he was not a member of the church. The fact that he and a number of others were not church members caused considerable controversy in Milford before the town was admitted to the New Haven Jurisdiction in 1643. However, it is said that although not a church member, and therefore not entitled to the franchise or to hold office, he did serve in some official capacity, which was quite unusual. On March 19, 1648, he did join the church and had four children baptized on the next Sunday, March 26, 1648. Being then in good standing he was accepted as a freeman. His wife Maary was admitted April 30, 1653. His homestead in Milford was situated on original lot No. 13, on the map of 1646, on the "west side of the river." He was sergent of the military company (train band) in 1658. (contained 2 acres, 1 rod and 10 poles) John's will, May 24, 1681, bequeathed to eldest son John, sons Josiah, Nathaniel, Joesph,

GEORGE (to have 20 pounds which I desire should be layed out for the following up his trade,") Obadiah, and Richard; daughters Elizabeth Porter, Abigail Baldwin, Sarah and Hannah. The heirs, Joesph, Obadiah, Sarah and Hannah, submitted the inventory to arbitration in 1691, son Richard consenting to the decision. GEORGE, though living in Branford Conn., is not mentioned in this document. !NAME:World Family Tree Vol. 5, Ed. 1, World Family Tree Vol. 5, Ed. 1, Brøderbund Software, INC., Release date: August 22, 1996 !NAME:World Family Tree Vol. 4, Ed. 1, World Family Tree Vol. 4, Ed. 1, Brøderbund Software, Inc., Release date: August 23, 1996 !NAME:Ancestry File of the Latter-Day Saints, Ancestry File of the Latter-Day Saints !BIRTH:World Family Tree Vol. 5, Ed. 1, World Family Tree Vol. 5, Ed. 1, Brøderbund Software, INC., Release date: August 22, 1996 !BIRTH:World Family Tree Vol. 4, Ed. 1, World Family Tree Vol. 4, Ed. 1, Brøderbund Software, Inc., Release date: August 23, 1996 !BIRTH:Ancestry File of the Latter-Day Saints, Ancestry File of the Latter-Day Saints !DEATH:World Family Tree Vol. 5, Ed. 1, World Family Tree Vol. 5, Ed. 1, Brøderbund Software, INC., Release date: August 22, 1996 !DEATH:World Family Tree Vol. 4, Ed. 1, World Family Tree Vol. 4, Ed. 1, Brøderbund Software, Inc., Release date: August 23, 1996 !DEATH:Ancestry File of the Latter-Day Saints, Ancestry File of the Latter-Day Saints
